

Port Coquitlam's MUSIC IN THE PARK presents:

CROSSROADS HOSPICE COFFEEHOUSE Showcase

Take one of Vancouver's hottest rising stars, add two of the Tri-City's most soulful and seasoned entertainers, and you get the Crossroads Coffeehouse Showcase.

Sunday August 29, 2010

2pm to 4pm, Lions Park
(Lions Way off Shaughnessy Street)

Gillian Hobbs

Doug Rolling

Tony Prophet

Blues Got The Dawg

GILLIAN HOBBS

If you can imagine the kid sister of Joni Mitchell, with the lyrical styling of Leonard Cohen, and a hint of Sarah McLachlan, then you won't want to miss Gillian Hobbs. This All-Canadian Girl has been taking the Vancouver music scene by storm, captivating audiences at events like Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games, David Suzuki's Earth Run and on Global Television's Morning Cafe.

DOUG ROLLING

Doug Rolling describes himself as having his "heart in the country, but his soul in the blues". A singer-songwriter for 20 years in BC and Ontario, he serves up not-often-heard styles of Travis picking and slide guitar along with some lovingly treated golden oldies.

TONY PROPHET

Tony Prophet is a chart-topper, great singer and a masterful guitar player who has been performing for over 25 years and appearing at innumerable local events. A consummate family entertainer, whether sitting with his acoustic guitar singing the "Cat Came Back," blazing rock licks with his electric guitar, or wowing the crowds with his rendition of "Malaguena", Tony gets everyone involved in the fun especially the kids.

About Music in the Park
Music in the Park is a series of free concerts held in Lions Park, located on Lions Way off Shaughnessy Street, every Sunday afternoon from 2 pm to 4 pm throughout the months of July and August. Free parking, shade trees, picnic tables and a large playground, make Lions Park a great place to spend a Sunday afternoon.

Visit www.crossroadshospice.bc.ca for our 2010 performer's schedule